TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This proposal is based on current prices.

La Sal Catering reserves the right to change its contents.

All prices in this brochure include VAT.

All quotations are subject to confirmation of operational team availability at the time the booking is firmly confirmed.

A deposit of 50% of the total amount + 10% VAT will be requested. The balance of the invoice is payable one week before the event, together with confirmation of the final number of guests.

For health and safety regulatory reasons, no food or drink outside the contracted service will be served.

CANCELLATION POLICY

At La Sal Catering, we work hard to ensure that every event is a success. However, given the planning and resources involved, we have established the following cancellation policy.

1 Cancellation Deadlines

- More than 60 days before the event: the initial deposit is non-refundable. The option to reschedule the event at no additional charge will also be offered, subject to availability.
- Less than 60 days before the event: 100% of the total event price must be paid, as supplies, staffing and planning are generally already committed.

2 Date Changes

- Requests to change the event date must be made at least 60 days in advance and are subject to availability.
- Any additional costs, such as new supplies or additional staff, will be charged to the client.

3 Force Majeure

- In extraordinary circumstances beyond the control of the client or La Sal Catering (health restrictions, natural disasters, etc.), we will work to find a fair solution. This may include rescheduling the event or considering a partial refund, depending on the circumstances.

4 Cancellation Notice

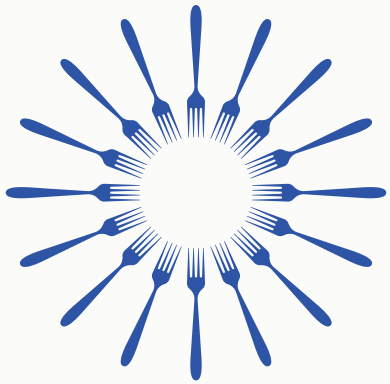

- All cancellations and change requests must be submitted in writing to the email address specified in the contract. The date the notice is received determines the applicable deadline.

5 Initial Deposit and Payments

- The initial deposit paid at the time of booking is non-refundable.

6 Other Terms

- In the event of partial cancellation (reducing guest numbers or removing contracted services), the impact on costs already incurred will be assessed and the relevant terms applied.
- Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by an authorised representative of La Sal Catering.
